AT WHICH WILL BE USED THE NEW

At this recital a feature of special interest will be the use of the "Steinway" Miniature Grand. The program will have additional attractiveness because of the rich sonority and brilliancy of tone and exquisite singing qualities of this latest triumph of the "Steinway" art. This little Grand. occupying scarcely more space than an upright piano, is creating enthusiasm among distinguished musicians every-This is the first of a series of eight were blindfolded and backed out of danger.

The building, which was 10 feet long by 60 feet wide, was filled with hay, straw, oats and bran. All were destroyed, as well as a storm buggy, a runabout and three wagons. W. L. Wondrecheck, manager of the company, estimates his loss at $2,000, covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to have been caused by a lighted cigar or cigarette thrown among the bales of hay. The building is the property of Thomas Grace.

James G. Gray, Gibson, Mo., writes about Drake's Palmetto Wine as follows: I live in the Missouri Swamps in Dunklin County and have been sick with Malarial fever and for affect on months a walking skeleton. One bottle of Drake's Palmetto Wine has done me more good than all the medicine I have taken in that fifteen months. I am buying two more bottles to stay cured. Drake's Palmetto Wine is the best medicine and tonic for Maiaris. Ridney and Liver aliments I ever used or heard of. I feel well now after using one bottle.

A. A. Feiding, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: I had a bad case of sour Stomach and Indigestion. I could eat so little that I was "falling to-bones" and could not sleep nor attend to my business. I used the trial bottle and two large seventy-five cent bottles and can truthfully say I am entirely cured. I have advised many to write for a free trial bottle.

AMERICAN GIRL

Paris, May 11.-United States Consul General Gowdy recently received a letter from an American girl, saying that she was locked up in a provincial jail without any charge having been made against her. The Consul General sent a representative to the jail and secured the girl's release. He then cabled to her parents, residing at Decatur, Ga., requesting funds for her re-turn to America. The girl related a sensational story. She claimed to have been abducted by an American sceking to marry her, and said she accompanied him on an automobile tour, was locked up in room in a country hotel and escaped and Elizabeth, and that she receive 50 a month.

At her death the residue of the estate was to be divided equally among the children born of his marriage with her, or children that they might adopt, and her children that they might adopt, and her children by a former marriage, who, the will reclied, "shall of their own free will reclide with her before the time when they are 15 years old."

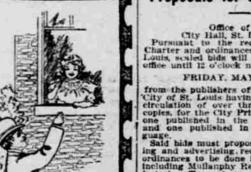

Should no legatees under the clause be living at the time of her death the preperty was to go in equal portions to the Christain Old People's Home and the Old People's and Working Giris' Home of the City of St. Louis, and if neither exist to such old people's home of Protestant belief as the St. Louis Union Trust Company, which was named executor and trustee of the estate, might select.

It was alleged that no such institutions as mentioned in the will exist.

The plaintiffs also alleged that their father for several years possessed a hatred for them because they joined with their mother in religious worship, which he despised. They charged that he was not of disposing mind and memory when the will was executed.
